Invitation To Central Labor Union

Hartford Wants Locals for Labor Day—C. P. Leonard

Talks on Legislative Matters—Officers Installed.

The Norwich Central Labor union met Tuesday evening for its regular session in C. L. U. hall and after the usual current business was disposed of, were remarks by Brother Charles B. Leonard of the Central Labor union of Hartford. Mr. Leonard extended an invitation to the local central to participate in the big parade that is being arranged for Labor day.
The invitation was referred to the various city locals for individual acceptance and it is probable that Norwich will be well represented. The Carpenters' union have signified their intention of accepting the invitation.
The newly elected officers were then installed by Organizer M. J. Kelly as follows: President, Justin Leonard; vice president, Florence Delaney; secretary, Walter H. Spaulding; sergeant at arms, Otto Zohn; inspecting committee, D. P. Bedard, Irving Forbes and R. L. Krohn; trustees for 18 months, Walter Abendroth.

Mr. Leonard also spoke at length upon legislative conditions affecting labor in this state, and answered a number of questions put to him along these lines, showing that he was a careful student of the subject. He also spoke of the new state constitution now on foot or proposed that would affect them.

Outing at the Drawbridge.
A party of twenty young people from Norwich Town and Scotland road had a picnic recently at the Pequetanuck drawbridge. A very enjoyable time was spent, but they found crabbing poor.

Local Residents at the Beach—Friends Mourn for Mrs. Wightman.

Many changes are taking place in the surroundings of Bog Meadow since the property has been acquired by the city. A great improvement is noticeable. The approach to the farm is cut off by a fence with an iron gate.
This completely shuts off the road which led to the old Lapiere home.
The buildings of the farm have been pulled down and removed. It looks as if it would keep out all intruders and impurities. A wall has also been started along the highway. It is a favorite drive for those who are interested in the progress of the work.
At present the account of the dry weather, Bog meadow is nearly dry.
